

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Coastal Kids Dental welcomes Dr. Cara DeLeon, DMD, to our Pediatric Dental Team

Dr. Cara is passionate about providing excellent pediatric dental care in a supportive manner as well as a commitment to provide children with a positive dental experience.

CHARLESTON, SC – July 26, 2010 – The Pediatric Dental Practice of Coastal Kids Dental welcomes Dr. Cara DeLeon, DMD. Dr. Cara is a Pediatric Dentist and will begin seeing patients at Coastal Kids Dental in late July 2010.

Dr. Isabel Driggers, lead Pediatric Dentist at Coastal Kids Dental, states, "We are very excited to have Dr. Cara join our team. At Coastal Kids Dental we work with children from birth to young adulthood and special needs patients of all ages making it very important that our dentists share the common goal of treating patients with care and respect. I've known Dr. Cara for many years now and have personally seen her true passion for providing excellent pediatric dental care. This along with her commitment to help children develop a positive association with dental care, is some of the characteristics that make Dr. Cara a perfect match for joining the Coastal Kids Dental team. I'm confident our patients and parents will enjoy both her high energy and love for children."

Dr. Cara DeLeon is a native of Augusta, Georgia. She attended the University of Georgia where she received a Bachelor of Science in Dietetics. After college she completed dental school at the Medical College of Georgia in Augusta. During her time at Medical College of Georgia Dr. Cara was involved in the Student Dental Association serving as President in her junior year. She was awarded the International College of Dentists Leadership Award, Georgia Dental Association Outstanding Leader Award, Public Health Award and inducted into the service based honor society, Alpha Upsilon Phi. Dr. Cara is a member of the American academy of Pediatric Dentistry, the American Dental Association and several state and local dental societies.
